Dr. Mary E. Burns

Dr. Mary E. Burns

Friday November 2, 2018 (Doctors only)

Venue: APA Hotel Woodbridge, Iselin, NJ

Time: 9am-4pm, Breakfast Registration/Reception begins 8:00am

Speaker: Mary E. Burns, DMD

Topic: Airway and Orthodontics in Adolescents

Sponsor:

6 CE Credits

Dr. Burns earned her degree in Dental Medicine with honors from the University of Pittsburgh and her Certificate in Orthodontics and Master of Education and Science from the Ohio State University. She received her certificate from the Roth Institute of TMJ Centered Orthodontic Treatment and serves on the faculty of the OBI Foundation for Bioesthetic Dentistry.

In orthodontic practice for over 27 years, Dr. Burns lectures internationally on the topics of Biologic Orthodontics and the role of the Orthodontist in the treatment of patients with sleep disordered breathing. She also serves as a research mentor for Orthodontic Residents at:

West Virginia University

University of Nebraska at Lincoln

University of Pennsylvania

Einstein Medical Center, New York

Dr. Burns will present a program which will include airway assessment through clinical exam, medical and dental histories and the use of CBCT data. In addition, CBCT assessment of the TMJ and skeletal structures will be demonstrated. A presentation of the spectrum of Sleep Disordered Breathing and a review of the current Medical and Dental literature will enable the participants to bring knowledge of this most critical information into their practice. Finally, Dr. Burns will present strategies to enhance the airway during growth and development and comprehensive dental care. The following is an outline of the presentation:

- Clinical Assessment of the Airway and Examination for Sleep Disordered Breathing (SDB)
- CBCT Assessment of the Airway
- CBCT Assessment of the TMJ and Skeletal Relationships
- Utilizing Growth and Development to enhance the Airway
- Presentation of Comprehensive Treatment Strategies to Enhance the Airway
- The Spectrum of Sleep Disordered Breathing - What is the Dentist's Role?

Hunter Satterfield

Friday April 5, 2019 (Doctors and Staff/Office)

Venue: Renaissance Woodbridge Hotel, Iselin, NJ

Time: 9am-4pm, Breakfast Registration/Reception begins 8:00am

Speaker: Hunter Satterfield, Financial Planner

Topic: Navigating Financial Decisions All Orthodontic Owners Face

Sponsor: American Orthodontics

6 CE Credits

Hunter received his Bachelor of Business Administration and Master in Professional Accounting from The University of Texas at Austin. Hunter is a Certified Public Accountant and Investment Advisor Representative. Prior to joining Cain Watters, Hunter was a senior tax consultant at Ernst and Young. He specialized in tax compliance and consulting with individuals, partnerships and corporations. Hunter joined Cain Watters and Associates in 2007.

Join us for a discussion on the various financial opportunities owning an orthodontic practice can bring, including tax deductions owners often overlook, the impact the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act may have on a practice, and more. Satterfield will take a deeper look at financial statements, overhead and share where he has seen practices overspend. He'll also discuss practice growth and ways to add locations or doctors, as well as transitioning out of a practice and into retirement. Don't miss this full-circle presentation on the financial lifecycle of an orthodontic practice owner. We anticipate breakout sessions for staff at this event!
